

"I Can't" Said the Ant Activity Card

Dear Families - Young children are working hard at understanding the sounds of our language. Rhymes are fun for children and they are especially important as young children learn to read. To play this game with your child, read the unfinished rhyme in each box to your child. Together, find the picture that will complete the rhyme. Cut it out, and paste it in. Then, you read the words and let your child "read" the picture!

"I'll hide in the plant," remarked the	"It's getting awfully late," commented the
"I'm feeling too hot!" moaned the	"I wish I were pink," whispered the
"I love looking at the moon," sighed the	"I'll never have a wife!" groaned the

